Roger and Sarah Ann were born in Lank-

in a musical way. There were three friends, Roger, Thomas Heels and Thomas Broadbent, all from England, all musically inclined, and a "full show" was given wherever they appeared together. As a young man, Roger worked at the Hatch Mill, Heber City. Later he was engaged in farming and he and his wife spent many hours at their loom, weaving beautiful rag carpets. Roger was eager to help others excel in music.
Many friends were students in his organ and cello classes. For thirty years he was choir leader in Heber First Ward. He filled a mission to England at the age
of 50.

MARGARET ELEANOR HARRIS GOODWIN HUNDLEY

Margaret Eleanor Harris, daughter of James and Francis J. Wooldrige was born March 27, 1821, in Abbeville, South Carolina. Here, her early childhood was spent.

Her parents were pioneers of the States of Mississippi and Texas.

She married Lewis Goodwin Nov. 6, 1836. Their home was in Bastrop, Texas. To them were born five children. Sometime later her husband died. About 1852, she met and married Thomas Augustus Hundley. To them were born four children. She also cared for two stepdaughters. They heard the gospel from missionaries and decided to go to Utah. They left many possessions for they were plantation and slave owners. After leaving their home they crossed the sandy plains of Texas by ox team. They spent sometime in Florence, Kansas, then went on to Denver, Colo., where they lived for two years. They left for Utah in the spring of 1862, reaching Provo River during high water. The river had to be forded, and as they crossed, the current carried the wagon and oxen down stream. Eleanor took her little ones and walked on the backs of the oxen and landed safely. They located in Heber where they built a log home.

The growing season was short at that time. Wheat was often frozen. It had to be ground in a coffee mill to obtain flour for bread. Materials for clothing were scarce, so Eleanor carded and spun wool for clothing.

Her husband worked in the mountains getting out saw logs for mills. In late June 1870 while chopping saw logs he was injured and died on July 15.

Eleanor had a very good education and began teaching at the first school in Park City.

Thos Augustus HUNDLEY

About 1873 she moved on a homestead in Center. Here, with her children she lived many years. Her church activities were many. She was a Primary teacher, Relief Society teacher and Relief Society president for many years. She did temple work in the Logan and Manti Temples.

She was always interested in the young people. Her cottonwood grove was the playground of youth. Her home was a social center, where the young people loved to gather.

She passed away in her eightieth year, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. A. Murdock, April 7, 1900, rich in love of all who knew her.

Hers was a rich life in services of love and devotion, and an abiding faith in the Gospel.
